

USS-8 (English Version; cf. Schmitt et al., 2010)

People react to unfair situations in very different ways. In the following I would like to ask you how you would react in unfair situations. I will now read you several statements. Please tell me to what extent each of these statements apply to you. If you have never experienced such a situation yourself, try to imagine how you would react if you were in such a situation.

First, we will look at situations to the advantage of others and to your own disadvantage.

(1) It makes me angry when others are undeservingly better off than me.	<input type="checkbox"/> 1	<input type="checkbox"/> 2	<input type="checkbox"/> 3	<input type="checkbox"/> 4	<input type="checkbox"/> 5	<input type="checkbox"/> 6
(2) It worries me when I have to work hard for things that come easily to others.	<input type="checkbox"/> 1	<input type="checkbox"/> 2	<input type="checkbox"/> 3	<input type="checkbox"/> 4	<input type="checkbox"/> 5	<input type="checkbox"/> 6

Now, we will look at situations in which you notice or learn that someone else is being treated unfairly, put at a disadvantage, or used.
