Current Projects

INSPIRE – Centre of Excellence on Inclusive Gender Equality in Research & Innovation: Creating Knowledge & Engaging in Collaborative Action

The European project INSPIRE aims to develop a sustainable center that develops innovative, inclusive and research-based gender equality policies and tools for the academic world. The subproject of INSPIRE, located at CEWS, aims to conduct methodological research in the field of monitoring gender equality plans. Funded by: Horizon Europe, grant agreement no. 101058537

UniSAFE – Gender-based violence and institutional responses: Building a knowledge base and operational tools to make universities and research organizations safe

The research project UniSAFE will produce robust knowledge on gender-based violence (GBV) in universities and research organizations and translate the knowledge into operational tools and recommendations for universities, research organizations and policymakers to reduce GBV. UniSAFE examines the mechanisms of GBV, its determinants, antecedents and consequences. Funded by: EU, Horizon 2020, grant agreement no. 101006261

StaRQ - Standards, guidelines and quality assurance for gender equality in academia

The project StaRQ analyses quality assurance of Gender equality measures in order to develop action recommendations. Funded by: BMBF - Federal Ministry of Education and Research, funding no. 01FP1901

CEWS Center of Excellence Women and Science

CEWS aims to promote the implementation of gender equality in science and research in Germany. The services and research of CEWS support evidence-based learning about inequalities and gender equality policies - to make academia gender-sensitive - and dismantle hierarchies and privileges created by structural, social, sexist and racial discrimination, with a focus on gender.

CEWS contributes to improving the quality, effectiveness, and sustainability of gender equality in science and research at the political and organizational levels, as well as at the level of knowledge production by building bridges between gender equality research and practices.

Collaborating internationally, CEWS implements national, international and European projects in the fields of gender and inequalities in academia. The coherent integration of research, networking, consultation and scientific service create CEWS' unique selling point.
