

Program
for the Online Workshop

Causality in the Social Sciences III: Heterogeneous Causal Effects

GESIS – Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences • 14-15 October 2021

If you want to join, please send an email to causality-workshop@gesis.org

14 October 2021 (Thursday)	Time	15 October 2021 (Friday)
	09:00	Wrap up/Opening
	09:15
	09:30	Talk 9: Oliver Rittmann (University of Mannheim): “The Parliamentary Attention Deficit Disorder” Discussants: Classe & Levi
	09:45
Opening	10:00	Talk 10: Franz Classe/Christoph Kern (IHF, Munich): “Latent Variable Effect Forests” Discussants: Levi & Mele
	10:15
Keynote 1: Richard Breen (University of Oxford): “Heterogeneous Causal Effects: Identification and Interpretation”.	10:30	Break
	10:45	Talk 11: Sara Kalucza (Umeå University): “Does Anyone Suffer from Teenage Motherhood? Mental Health Effects of Teen Motherhood in the UK Are Small and Homogeneous” Discussants: Bering & Zhou
	11:00
	11:15	Talk 12: Sebastian Levi/Ingo Wolf (Hertie School, Berlin): “How Does Information Provision Affect Support for Climate Change Policies in the Transport Sector?” Discussants: Classe & Rittmann
Break	11:30
Talk 1: Kevin P. Schönholzer (University of Zurich): “Educational Inequality: Life-Course Outcomes of Welfare State Policy” Discussants: Lang/Schwabe & Mele	11:45	Lunch
	12:00
Talk 2: Gabriele Mari (Erasmus University Rotterdam): “The Timing of Parental Unemployment, Insurance, and Children’s Education in the Netherlands” Discussants: Haupt & Schönholzer	12:15
	12:30

Lunch	12:45	Keynote 3: Saskia le Cessie (Universiteit Leiden): “On causal questions and principled answers”.
	13:00
	13:15
	13:30
Wrap up morning/opening afternoon	13:45	Talk 13: Paul C. Bauer/ Camille Landesvatter (MZES, Mannheim): “Ideal Research Designs: Using Constraint-Free Thought Experiments to Benchmark Designs for Causal Questions” Discussants: Kalucza & Rittmann
Talk 3: Francesca Mele (University of Zurich): “Agency in Secondary School Transitions in Switzerland: To What Extent Can Children Pursue Their Own Path?” Discussants: Haupt & Kalucza	14:00	Talk 14: Ang Yu (University of Wisconsin, Madison): “Causal Decomposition with Effect Heterogeneity” Discussants: Bauer/Landesvatter & Zhou
	14:15
Talk 4: Sebastian Lang/ Ulrike Schwabe (DZHW, Hannover): “The German Initiative of Excellence: Short- and Mid-Term Effects on Students’ Perceptions of Educational Quality” Discussants: Conte Keivabu & Schönholzer	14:30	Talk 15: Xiang Zhou (Harvard University): “Attendance, Completion, and Heterogeneous Returns to College” Discussants: Bauer/Landesvatter & Yu
	14:45
Break	15:00	Break
Talk 5: Henriette Bering/Wiebke Schulz (University of Bremen): “Does the Impact of Extracurricular Activities Vary by Parental Socioeconomic Status? An Analysis of Adolescents’ Cognitive Skills” Discussants: García Sierra & Mari	15:15
	15:30
Talk 6: Alicia García Sierra (University of Oxford): “Heterogeneous Parental Responses to Children’s Early Health Disadvantages” Discussants: Bering & Conte Keivabu	15:45	Summary: Richard Breen (University of Oxford)
	16:00
Break	16:15	End
Talk 7: Risto Conte Keivabu (EUI): “The Big Plunge: How Environmental Policy Lifts School Attendance for the Poor” Discussants: Lang/Schwabe & Mari	16:30
	16:45
Talk 8: Andreas Haupt (KIT Karlsruhe): “Who profits from occupational licensing?” Discussants: García Sierra & Yu	17:00
	17:15
Break	17:30
	17:45
	18:00

Keynote 2: Jennie E. Brand (University of California, Los Angeles): “Uncovering College Effect Heterogeneity”.	18:15
	18:30
	18:45
Virtual Drinks 🍷	20:00	