

STRUCTURED IMPACT

The Role of Social Network Structure in Individual Stereotype Endorsement

Julia Eberlen¹, Matteo Gagliolo² & Olivier Klein¹

¹Center for Social and Cultural Psychology, ULB

²Group for Research on Ethnic Relations, Migration and Equality, ULB

Contact : Julia.Eberlen@ulb.ac.be

Aim:

Explore impact of social network structure on stereotype endorsement

• Stereotype:

1. Acquired shared social knowledge

2. Varies in individual endorsement

Method:

Agent-Based Model

