

HOUSING QUESTIONNAIRE IN THE EMPLOYMENT SURVEY 2007

M1 Dwelling address:	ADRESSE
M2 Pinpointing of housing situation (details about the address):	SITUATION
M3 Interviewer number:	NOENQ
M4 Housing questioning level (between 1 and 6):	RGL
M5 Reference week:	DATDEB
M6 Area number:	NOAIR
M7 Building number:	NOLOG
M8 Dwelling (or premises) number:	NOLOG
M9 Is the dwelling (premises, building):
1. An ordinary household	CHP
2. A community (not to be surveyed)

If CHP = 2 then end of questionnaire

If the dwelling (or premises) is being resurveyed

M10 In the reference week was there a change in the dwelling (or premises) situation by comparison with the previous survey?

NO CHANGE

0: Premises

1: Dwelling

Positive CHANGE to dwelling

2: New dwelling

3: Overlooked dwelling

4: Dwelling created by transforming premises

5: Dwelling created by splitting premises

Negative CHANGE to dwelling

6: Dwelling destroyed

7: Dwelling previously wrongly surveyed (outside area boundaries)

8: Dwelling no longer used for housing

9: Dwelling absorbed in a merger

10: Dwelling erroneously added

M11 Type of building:

TH

1. Farm
2. Hotel, family guesthouse, furnished accommodation
3. Provisional construction, makeshift accommodation
4. Private house (one dwelling)
5. House or building containing several dwellings fully or primarily used for accommodation
6. Building primarily used for industrial, commercial or administrative purposes containing at least one dwelling used for accommodation (factory, workshop, office block, shop, secondary school, primary school town hall, station, post office, stadium, etc).

M12 Year building was completed:

AAI1

1. Before 1915
2. 1915 to 1948
3. 1949 to 1967
4. 1968 to 1974
5. 1975 to 1981
6. 1982 to 1989
7. 1990 to 1998
8. 1999 or after

M13 If the building completion year is 1990 or after

Give a year between 1990 and the present year (inclusive):

AAI2

M14 Number of rooms in the dwelling:

NBPIEC

M15 Dwelling category:

1. Main residence (dwelling or main room where the household lives for most of the year)
2. Dwelling or separate room used occasionally
3. Secondary residence or rented dwelling (or dwelling for rent) for leisure time or holidays
4. Vacant dwelling (available or not for sale or rent)

M16 The result of steps taken to contact the household to be surveyed is:

REPNSE

1. Interview accepted
2. Long-term absence
3. Impossible to contact
4. Inappropriate, the interview is impossible
5. Refusal
- 6.

If the dwelling is resurveyed:

M17 Is there a new household by comparison with the previous survey? (all former residents of the dwelling have left) CHGM

1. Yes
2. No

M18 What is the dwelling occupancy status:

1. Acceding to ownership (the household must make at least one loan repayment to buy the dwelling)
2. Owner (non-acceding) of the dwelling or the house where the dwelling is located
3. Tenant of a HLM (low-rent) dwelling
4. Tenant or subtenant of a rented unfurnished non-HLM dwelling
5. Subtenant or tenant of a rented furnished dwelling or hotel room
6. Housed free of charge by parents, friends or the employer (including people living in a dwelling sold with a life annuity, etc).

M19 List all people living in this dwelling, even for part of the week, including those temporarily absent at the time of the survey.

Individual number	First name	Sex	What is your date of birth? Day/Month/Year			Where were you born?	In which French département (or country, following LNAIS)?	In which year did you arrive in France? If LNAIS = '2'	Which month? If LNAIS = '2' and survey year - NRESID (=10)	What is your nationality?	Indicate the country of which you are a national	Does M always live in this dwelling?	Do you live in this dwelling permanently?
			NAIJ	NAIM	NAIA
01
02
03
04
05
06
07
08
09
10
11
12
13
14
15

SEXE

- 1: Male
- 2: Female

LNA

- 1: In France
- 2: abroad

NFR

- 1: French by birth, or by integration
- 2: French by naturalisation, marriage, declaration or option when coming of age
- 3: Foreign national

PRES

- 1: People always living in the dwelling
- 2: People no longer living in the dwelling
- 3: Deceased persons

CA

- 0: people living in this dwelling permanently
- 1: Military personnel on national service
- 2: Career military personnel

5: Young people living in a young workers' hostel

6: Prisoner

7: Ill or convalescing person living in a sanatorium, hospital, healthcare living in barracks or a camp institution, etc

3: Intern student, student living in university hall of resident or student hostel 8: Elderly person living in a retirement home or hospice

4: Pupil or student living in an independent dwelling 9: Person living in occasional housing

M20 For persons aged 15 and over: What is your marital status?

MATRI

1. Single
2. Married or remarried
3. Widowed
4. Divorced

M21 Do you live as a couple (with a member of the household)?

CM1

1. Yes
2. No

If the person lives as a couple

M22 Have you lived as a couple?

CM2

NOI of the other person

M23 Do you have children in the household?

EM1

1. Yes
2. No

M24 If the person has children in the household

Who are your children?

NOIENF1 to NOIENF14

Children's' NOI

If the person has no direct link with the reference person or if s/he was not present when the dwelling was first visited

M25 What is your link to the reference person?

LIEN

1. Spouse
2. Grandparents/grandchild
3. Son/Daughter-in-law/stepparents
4. Other relation (brother, sister, nephew, niece, cousin, uncle, aunt)
5. Friends
6. Boarder, subtenant, lodger, child in the care of a nurse without blood tie
7. Accommodated domestic or employee

The interviewer then interviews each person in the dwelling. At the end of the interview, s/he answers the following question:

M26 This dwelling is:

1. Vacant dwelling
2. Occasional residence
3. Secondary residence
4. Other residence outside the remit: absorbed, demolished, impossible to identify, having lost its residential purpose
5. Impossible to contact
6. Long-term absence
7. Survey impossible (inappropriate)
8. Refusal
9. Survey in progress
10. Survey partially completed (abandoned), validated
11. Survey fully completed, validated
12. Postponed to a later wave
13. Dwelling erroneously created
14. Dwelling not surveyed (dwelling inhabited by economically inactive over-65-year-olds or secondary residence in intermediary questioning or new dwelling not drawn at random)

Given the favourable opinion granted by the National Council for Statistical Information, this survey, which is considered to be of general interest, is compulsory, in application of the modified law no. 51-711 (7 June 1951) on obligation, coordination and privacy in statistics.

Certificate no. 2007T015EC from the Minister of the Economy, Finance and Industry valid for 2007.

The responses to this questionnaire are protected by statistical privacy and are for the attention of INSEE.

Law no. 78-17 (6 January 1978) on IT, files and liberties applies to the responses to the present survey. It guarantees the persons concerned the right to access and correct data concerning them. This right can be exercised by contacting INSEE's regional directorates.