The letter from the Federal Statistical Office informs you that your has been selected to take part in the Swiss Labour Force Survey. This is a survey which takes place four times a year and which enables important information necessary to the economy and research to be gathered on subjects related to occupational activity and unemployment. To ensure the quality of the results, it is crucial that all selected persons participate in the survey, regardless of whether or not they pursue a professional activity.

09000 01 What is the SLFS and what is it for?
09000 02
09000 03    SLFS = Swiss Labour Force Survey
09000 04    - The SLFS is carried out by the Swiss Federal Statistical 09000 05    Office on behalf of the Federal Council.
09000 06    - The SLFS provides extremely important information about the labour
09000 07    situation and professional activities in general. Among other 09000 08    things it provides answers to the following questions:
09000 09    - How many people are there in Switzerland who are employed, not 09000 10    employed or unemployed? How many pensioners are in paid employment?
09000 11    - How many people work in each sector? How many hours do they work?
09000 12    - How much holiday are they entitled to? How many unemployed people 09000 13    are not registered with a job centre? What training do they have?
09000 14
09000 15

09001 01    - The SLFS provides important information for decision-making for 09001 02    politicians, research and industry.
09001 03    - It is only by recognising the problems of the labour market in good
09001 04    time that effective measures can be taken, for example unemployed 09001 05    people can be helped through further training, occupational 09001 06    programmes and other measures, or mothers in part-time jobs can be 09001 07    provided with day-care centres and other possibilities for their 09001 08    children to be looked after.
09001 09    - Labour surveys are carried out in all European countries, using 09001 10    the same questions.
09001 11
09001 12
09001 13
09001 14
09001 15

09100 01 But why me?
09100 02
09100 03
09100 04    - Instead of questioning the whole population, which would be far too 09100 05    costly, it is enough to question a number of people selected at 09100 06    random.
09100 07
09100 08    - Each quarter, 32'500 persons are selected at random from 09100 09    a sampling frame of the FSO.
09100 10    - Only ONE person per household is interviewed.
09100 11
09100 12    - I cannot replace you with ANYONE ELSE because that would falsify
09100 13    the results of the survey.
09100 14
09100 15
What about data protection?

- Without an absolute guarantee that the data we collect will be protected we cannot carry out any sort of survey. As a LINK interviewer I am also bound to protect all the data I collect.

This means that no data from which individual people could be recognised will be passed on to third parties. And no names or addresses will be passed on to anyone else either. In order to ensure data protection your name and telephone number will be separated from your answers as soon as the interview is finished.

- The results of the survey will be collated anonymously, i.e. in percentages, such as 54% of women are in paid employment.

What type of population register is concerned? #e

The population register made available to the FSO exclusively contains demographical information such as age, gender, civil status or nationality. These data come from the population register of the commune of residence. The population register is updated every quarter.

Why is the population register used? #e

In order to simplify the SLFS interviews, the Federal Statistical Office directly takes certain data on respondents and their households from the population register. This means that we no longer need to ask these questions, thus making your job easier.

Is the FSO allowed to use these data from the population register? #e

YES. The use of these data and in particular the protection of data are regulated by the Federal Act of 23 June 2006 on the Harmonisation of the Register of Residents and of other Official Registers of Persons (RS 431.02).

We know that you are not in the telephone book. But the Federal Statistical Office is obliged to take account of the whole of the population. Since February 2008, a new Federal Council ordinance allows it to use all fixed-line telephone numbers in Switzerland including those that do not appear in the telephone directory.

Only a few priority FSO surveys have access to this list of fixed-line numbers, including this survey on the labour force (SLFS).

Data protection is guaranteed by the Federal Statistics Act and the Data Protection Act:

- telephone numbers are treated in confidence
- they are used for statistical purposes only, their use for commercial or administrative purposes is absolutely out of the question and liable to prosecution.

Importance of the SLFS

- The return to the voluntary survey does not in any way call into question the importance of this survey, which has existed for over 20 years.
- The Federal Council has also reiterated the centrality of this survey in Switzerland’s statistical system.
- The SLFS provides indispensable indicators on employment, unemployment, working conditions, educational level, the integration of foreigners, monitoring the free movement of persons and gender equality.

Why should I bother to answer?

Your participation is important because every voice counts. You are not legally required to participate, but the FSO is counting on your cooperation.

The more people respond, the more the numbers will reflect the reality of the labour market and the variety of living conditions in Switzerland.

If a large number of people respond, the FSO will be able to provide accurate estimators.

A CODE is also given in this FSO letter: persons who have doubts about the identity of the caller ("Is this really someone from LINK wishing to interview me for the SLFS?") can ask the interviewer to say the code in order to identify him or herself.

A telephone number is also included in the FSO letter (SLFS Hotline) where persons can ensure themselves that everything is in order.

The following questions are especially important for the survey. You may interrupt me whenever you like if something isn't clear.
